Onion Bag Shootout

The Onionbag Shootout is a very unique game. It was originated by the creative mind of Mr. Wahr. The rim is made out of a clothes hanger. The net is an onionbag. A nerf ball is wrapped in duct tape to make the ball. You stand 20 feet back and have a shootout for two minutes. Your partner and you alternate after one minute. The team with the most points after the time is up, wins. The cost is $1.50 to enter the competition. The event is held at 12:15 during lunch every day for a month. It has a Men's and a Women's division. Last year was the first year it was held as a competition. The winners receive T-Shirts. The rest of the proceeds go to charity. It has such a big turnout, I'm sure it will have many more years to come!

Brian Katzenberger and Jeff Brown have gone through two undefeated seasons as O. B. S. standouts. They were the team to beat in the mens division. Angela Chacon and Lyndsay Gnotek knocked off all the women in their division. Watch for them in the years to come.

Our goal is to help you with yours.

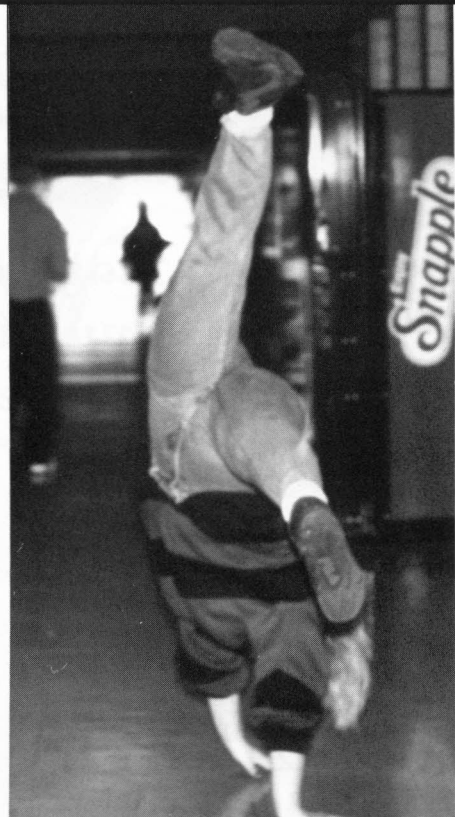

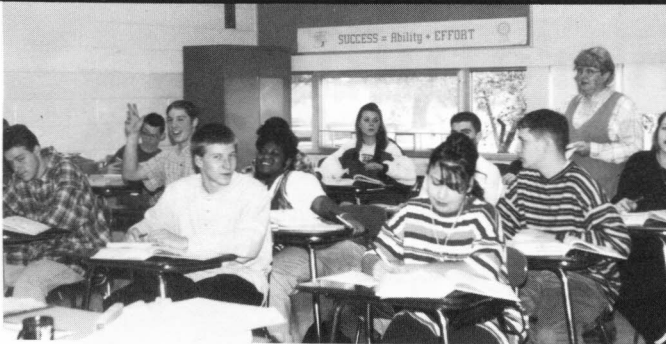

It's a great feeling to finally reach a goal that you've worked hard to achieve. That's why your success is our top priority. At SVSU, we can answer questions about how to apply for admission to college, how to receive financial aid, how to prepare for a career that fits your interests, and much more. And you can choose from more than 70 areas of study. SVSU is large enough to offer many of the opportunities you find at big universities, but we deliver them in the same caring manner of a small college. So when you're ready to set your goals for college and beyond, give us a call. For more information, call 790-4200.
